CONTRIBUTOR LIST (G Index)

WHAT IS INCLUDED IN THIS INDEX?

Alphabetical listing of the following:

- * Individuals making contributions over $500, including in-kind contributions. (Contributions of less than $500 may appear due to varied thresholds of past data entry levels.)
- * All contribution refunds to individuals, regardless of amount. (Noted by negative number.)
- * Loans from individuals, regardless of amount. (Endorsers or guarantors are noted as such.)
- * Loan repayments to individuals, regardless of amount. (Noted by negative number.)
- * Contributions reallocated from one individual to another. (Those contributions affected are noted with "REALL" after their names. A negative number indicates the individual's total contribution to the campaign was reduced by that amount. A positive number indicates the amount reallocated to another individual.)

PLEASE NOTE THAT INDIVIDUAL CONTRIBUTIONS REPORTED ON RECENT FILINGS IN THIS ELECTION CYCLE, OR IN THE 9 MONTHS AFTER THE ELECTION, MAY NOT BE INCLUDED ON THIS INDEX DUE TO THE VOLUME OF INFORMATION BEING ENTERED INTO THE DATA BASE.

SAMPLE ENTRY

GUIDELINES FOR USE OF THIS INFORMATION

- * All data is as reported by the candidates and committees and is subject to change by amendment or FEC audit.
- * All names are listed as reported. Because of inconsistencies in reporting contributors' names, it is difficult to verify whether two apparently similar names are the same individual. Likewise, if Mr. or Mrs. was omitted, two different individuals may appear to be the same person.
- * Some contribution refunds may appear before the original contribution in the listing because of inconsistencies in the way a contributor's name was reported.
- * THESE FIGURES SHOULD NOT BE USED AS AN INDICATION THAT LIMITS HAVE BEEN EXCEEDED, BUT AS A GUIDE FOR FURTHER EXAMINATION OF THE REPORTS THEMSELVES.
- * This report is available for public review at the Federal Election Commission, "Provided, that any information copied from such reports and statements shall not be sold or utilized by any person for the purpose of soliciting contributions or for any commercial purpose other than using the name and address of any political committee to solicit contributions from such committee." (2 U.S.C. Section 438(o)(4))

G INDEX — SELECTED LIST OF RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES

While Section I of the Index relates to individual transactions, including individual contributions and individual loan activity, Sections II through V relate to transactions between committees and/or organizations. The information appears in the same printout format as Section I but the Type of Receipt/Expenditures will be different.

Section II itemizes loans received from banks, and loan repayments made to banks.

Section III itemizes contributions from unregistered organizations, and expenditures made to unregistered organizations.

Section IV itemizes receipts reported as refunds or rebates from corporations.

Section V itemizes any receipt or expenditure transaction with another political committee or candidate. This would include receipts such as Transfers In, Loans Received, Loan Repayments Received, Refunds, Rebates, and In-Kind Contributions. It would also include expenditures such as Loans Made, Loan Repayments Made, Contribution Refunds Made, Transfers Out, Expenditures Against, Independent Expenditures, Honoraria, and Re-Count Vote Contributions.

RESTRICTIONS ON USE OF FEC DISCLOSURE DOCUMENTS

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and Commission Regulations contain broad restrictions on the use of information in FEC disclosure documents. A person contemplating use of FECA reports for any commercial purpose or to solicit contributions of any kind should be aware of these limitations.

Title 2, United States Code, Section 438(a)(4) provides: "...Information copied from (FEC disclosure) reports and statements shall not be sold or utilized by any person for the purpose of soliciting contributions or for any commercial purpose, other than using the name and address of any political committee to solicit contributions from such committee."

Commission Regulations (11 C.F.R. §103.13) state: "Any information copied, or otherwise obtained from any report or statement, or copy, reproduction, or publication thereof, filed with the Commission, Clerk of the House, Secretary of the Senate, or any Secretary of State or other equivalent chief State election officer, shall not be sold or utilized by any person for the purpose of soliciting contributions, or any commercial purpose, except that the name and address of any political committee may be used to solicit contributions from such committee. For purposes of this section, 'any commercial purpose' does not include the sale of newspapers, magazines, books, or other similar communications, the principal purpose of which is not to communicate lists or other information obtained from a report filed as noted above."

The prohibition on the sale or use of information copied from FECA reports prohibits, for example, the use of such information to compile a mailing list for sale or rental. The prohibition on the use of such information to solicit contributions is not limited to contributions to Federal candidates but to all contributions whether political, charitable, or other. It is therefore unlawful, for example, to use information in disclosure reports to solicit contributions to a state or local candidate, or to a referendum campaign, or to a charity or other non-profit organization.

Information obtained from FECA disclosure reports also may not be used for any commercial purpose. An example would be compiling a mailing list to solicit sales of a product or service, whether or not for profit. An exception is made for such use of information copied from FECA reports in news media and books, even though publications are sold commercially, provided the principal purpose of the publication is not reprinting disclosure reports.

Violations of 2 U.S.C. §438(a)(4) are punishable by payment of a civil penalty of up to $10,000 or twice the amount of the violation, whichever is greater. (See 2 U.S.C. §437g.) Inquiries concerning the use of disclosure documents should be addressed to the Public Records Office.
